

ST. LOUIS GAME JAM

The Global Game Jam is coming to your town! It's the annual world event where students and professional game developers get together and make the most innovative games imaginable.

There is one obstacle: you only have 24 hours!

Participants around the world take the same weekend off to create, develop and play. It's a chance to meet new people, get inspired and expand your portfolio. Be a part of the phenomenon that welcomes thousands of people each year and show off your creativity.

There is a jam site near you, so don't miss out. Sign up NOW!

When is it?

January 28-30, 2011

HURRY!
SPACE IS LIMITED

Where is it?

Webster
UNIVERSITY

How do I attend?

Go to stlgamejam.com and register. You can get more information as well as see games that were made in the past. You will have a fun time, make friends, and build some cool games.

